Prayer and Pledge: Breakfast 9:00am

Members Welcomed and Raffle Started: At 9:30 am

Treasurer's Report: Sadly our treasurer of 10 years, Sandi Specht, has died. She will always be remembered as a faithful friend and co-worker. She did a wonderful job with our financial reports and affairs. She is missed.

Members approve to spending up to $150 for flowers or whatever charity the Specht family chose.

The members voted for Elaine Foster to be the new treasurer. Gloria Briggs was voted in as secretary. Robert Adams remains the Chairman. The members also approved that all these three officers have the authority to sign checks, pay bills, conduct banking affairs and any other financial task necessary for the smooth operation of the organization, with Elaine being primarily responsible for the treasurer's obligations.

Elaine, who was acting as temporary treasurer while Sandi was in the hospital, presented the latest financial report, which was approved unanimously by a vote. Mike Specht gave Elaine the mailbox key and the old DMCO laptop to use if she needs it.

Secretary: The April 9, 2022 minutes were approved.

Chairman's Report: The TUP was approved by the County so yard sales have begin. The TUP certificate is now hanging on the wall. The last property, the one on E Path, will be shown this week to a family that Rob Adams knows.

Fundraiser: Aluminum cans are being redeemed, as shown on the financial report. Members are now collecting tin cans to determine if redeeming them is worthwhile. Rob requested that the yard sale signs be changed to reflect the meals we sell on the 1st Saturday of the summer months.

Raffle Drawing: Won by LeeAnn who donated her winnings back to DMCO.

Vote to Adjourn: 10:40 am
